Winter Wonderland Dance

Our Winter Wonderland dance was a great success. Leadership did a fantastic job with decorations! Thanks to everyone who participated in and helped out selling food. Yearbook, Leadership and NJHS are all grateful for your purchases of food and drinks. We hope everyone enjoyed it and we are looking forward to the Sweetheart Dance on February 12th.

Football Tournament Congratulations

Jacob Rodriguez, Bryan Orewyler, Bryan Keitel, Daniel Gomez, Dylan Toohey, and Michael Arroyo's team for winning our ASB hosted Football tournament. The last game of the tournament was very exciting and the game was won in the last second. The game was tied when the bell rang, but the boys were determined to have a winner and Jacob made the touchdown to crown his team the winners!! See more pictures below.

Band

Our Marching Matadors have finished their parade season and have moved on to concerts. Their Winter Concert on Thursday went fantastic! "Carol of the Bells" really blew us all away! Great job Matadors!! Band's upcoming events include more great concerts so make sure to continue reading for updates on the newest band event. Come out and support our Marching Matadors!!

Pop Top / Toy Drive Congratulations Mrs.

Hangar's class! You are in the lead of our pop top drive. Second and third place belong to Mr. Wilson and Mr. Seitz, respectively. Remember that the winning class receives a dessert buffet!! Keep collecting to support the Ronald McDonald house. The winning class of our Toy Drive is Mrs. Perez ! Good job you will be joining Mrs. Hangar's Class and Ms. Barton's class at a doughnut party!! Thank you for supporting Toys for Tots!!
